ASSOCIATION OF INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS OF THE ACT (AISACT)

From Compliance to Culture:

Leading Child Safe Schools in an Increasingly Complex Risk Environment

A four hour professional learning session for AISACT principals and school leaders

Friday 23 October 2026 | 12:00 pm – 4:00 pm | Principals & school leaders

This four hour session is designed for AISACT principals and school leaders, focusing on how schools move from compliance with child safety requirements to a genuinely protective safeguarding culture.

COMPLIANCE → CULTURE

Learning outcomes

By the end of the session, participants should be able to:

01 Identify cultural indicators of child-safe and non-child-safe schools.

02 Understand emerging safeguarding risks facing ACT schools.

03 Recognise how leadership behaviours influence reporting, escalation and accountability.

04 Assess whether current systems provide evidence of culture, not just compliance.

05 Identify practical actions to strengthen child safety culture over the next 12 months.
