

Holocaust Studies Fellowship 2019

Teaching and Learning – AIS. Presentation by
Jocelyn James, Covenant Christian School

Sponsored by: Raoul Wallenberg Unit, B'nai B'rith
Gandel Philanthropy

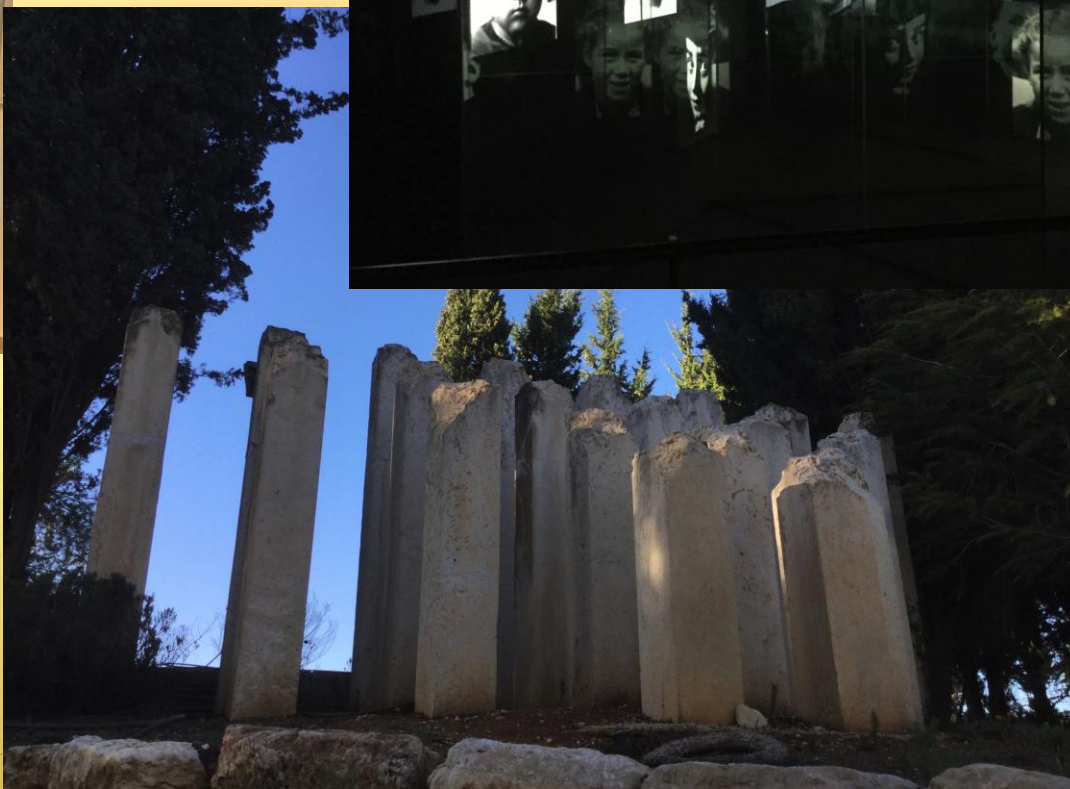

What's Involved?

- ❖ 18 day course in Jerusalem in January each year
- ❖ At Yad Vashem's International School for Holocaust Studies, taught by top researchers and educators in this field
- ❖ Meet Holocaust survivors
- ❖ Taken on cultural tours around Israel on weekends
- ❖ Network with 30+ teachers from all around Australia
- ❖ Flights, accommodation and meals for the duration of the course are paid
- ❖ Develop a unit of work/promote Holocaust Studies on your return

What did I learn?

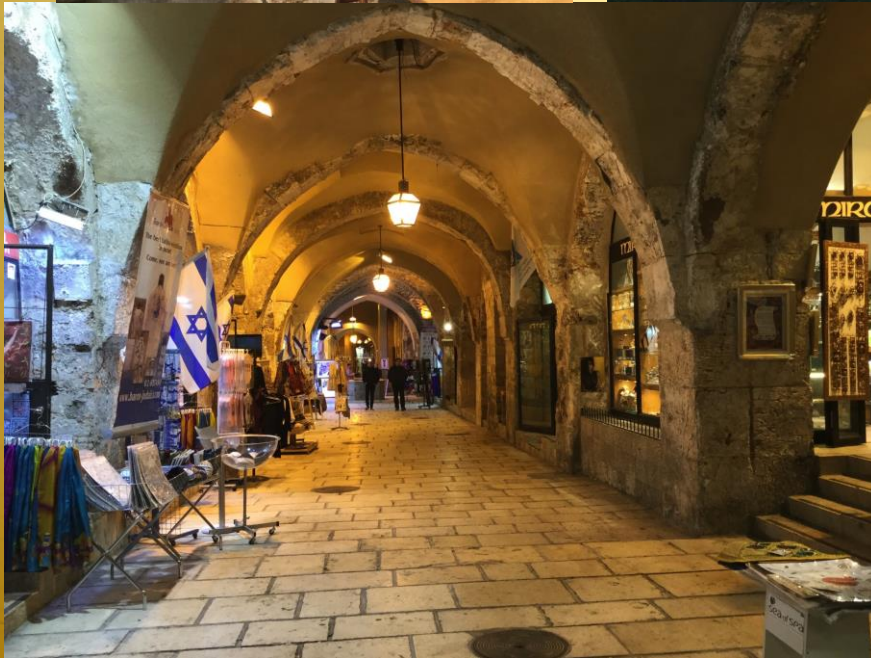

Personal Impact

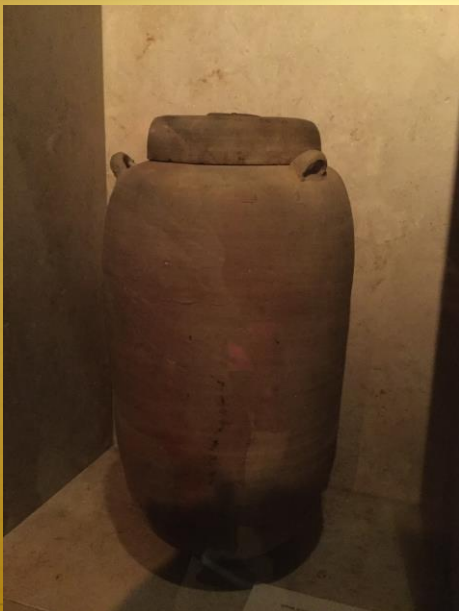

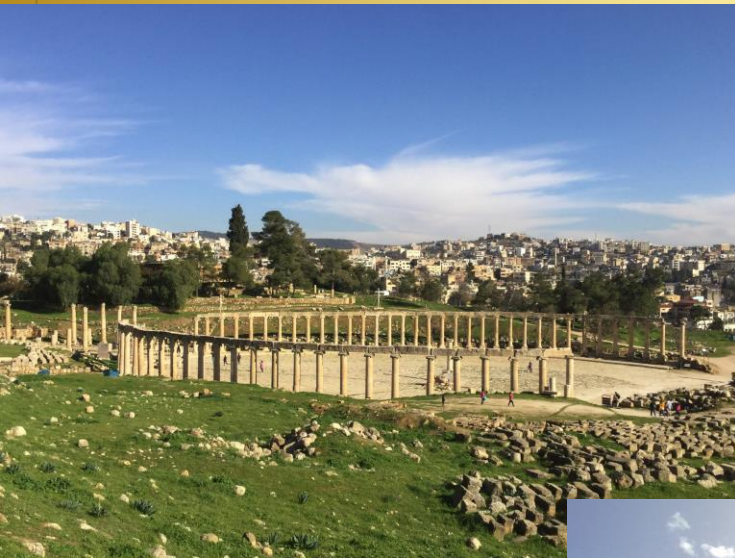

Voices

Being in Israel

Seeing, Living

Connecting

Photo Exhibition Project

Steps from here...

Promote this.

Teachers need to be covering a Holocaust related theme to apply. This can be in:

English, Religious Studies, Global Studies, History, Legal Studies, etc.

Application open in February and close in June. AIS usually sends this out or see <https://www.yadvashem.org/education/international-activities/australian-educators.html>

Advertise the teacher workshop being run on the 14th of November 4-6pm at Burgmann. An educator from Yad Vashem is visiting from Israel. (Flyers available)

References

Alexander Vorontsov, A. (2019). Liberation from Concentration Camp. [image] Available at: <https://www.thedailybeast.com/the-holocaust-didnt-end-with-the-liberation-of-auschwitz-and-the-nazi-death-camps> [Accessed 3 Nov. 2019].

Historicalthinking.ca. (2019). HISTORICAL THINKING CONCEPTS | Historical Thinking Project. [online] Available at: <https://historicalthinking.ca/historical-thinking-concepts> [Accessed 3 Nov. 2019].

Yadvashem.org. (2019). Gandel Project | www.yadvashem.org. [online] Available at: <https://www.yadvashem.org/education/international-activities/australian-educators.htm> [Accessed 3 Nov. 2019].

All other photographs are my own.
Please contact me about the course:
Jocelyn.james@covenant.act.edu.au

